Good Friday: April 7, 2023

This is not a separate service, but one continuous worship liturgy that began last night with the observance of Maundy Thursday and ends with Resurrection Sunday. As such, we gather in silence.

Paraments, banners, flowers, and other decorations have been removed from the worship space. Crosses that cannot be removed may be veiled.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

Almighty God, look with loving mercy on your family, for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed, to be given over to the hands of sinners, and to suffer death on the cross; who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen.

Epistle Reading: Hebrews 10:16-25

In the death of Jesus, forgiveness of sins is accomplished and access to God is established. Hence, when we gather together for worship and when we love others, we experience anew the benefits of Jesus' death.

Good Friday Service Of Fading Light

The passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

On Good Friday, the story of Jesus' passion—from his arrest to his burial—is read in its entirety from the Gospel of John. During the reading of the Passion of Our Lord, we will pause at various points to sing a single verse of "Ah, Holy Jesus". There will also be pauses to extinguish a candle on the cross at which we do not sing.

Betrayed, Arrested, Brought Before The High Priest

Verse 1 of "Ah, Holy Jesus"

Text: Johann Heermann, 1585–1647; tr. Robert Bridges, 1844–1930, alt. Music: HERZLIEBSTER JESU, Johann Crüger, 1598–1662

Denial and Interrogation

Verse 2 is sung
Jesus before Pilate
Verse 3 is sung.
Jesus Sentenced to Death
The Crucifixion of Jesus
Verse 4 is sung
Jesus's Side Is Pierced
The Burial of Jesus

BIDDING PRAYER

Verse 5 is sung

The assembly kneels or sits. The presiding minister leads the invitations to prayer (the bids). Silence for prayer follows each bid. The presiding minister will lead prayers that conclude the silence. Each prayer ends with the words "We ask this through Christ our Lord." to which all respond "Amen." After the final bid, all pray the Lord's Prayer:

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

ANTHEM: Christ, the Single Sacrifice

THE SOLEMN REPROACHES

This ancient text, known also as the Improperia, first appeared in Good Friday or Holy Saturday rites of the ninth century. The text then slowly spread in use through the middle ages and then was finally added to the Roman rite in the fourteenth century. This adaptation found in Evangelical Lutheran Worship, has made changes to remove former anti-semitic language and is revised for contemporary usage.

Each reproach ends with the words "but you have prepared a cross for your Savior." to which all respond "Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal, have mercy on us."

STREPITUS

The strepitus (Latin for "great noise") is a loud noise which symbolizes the earthquake that followed Christ's death as well as the closing of the tomb.

The service ends in silence. You are invited to remain for prayer. We ask that all depart in silence. There is no formal dismissal, as our worship for the Three Days is one continuous service, having begun yesterday evening and concluding on Easter Sunday.
